

A Glamorous Summer Wedding at Swan-e-Set Bay Resort in Pitt Meadows, British Columbia, Canada

Dayna Miller (26 and a clinical counselor) and Kelly Miller (30 and a co-owner of an excavation company) met through their parents, who have cabins on the same lake. They began hanging out together at the lake, eventually growing closer. Kelly proposed to Dayna on the beach at sunset while vacationing in Cuba. The couple was married at Swan-e-Set Bay Resort & Country Club in Pitt Meadows, British Columbia, Canada. "We live in such a beautiful area, so we really wanted our wedding to showcase the beauty of British Columbia," Dayna says. The country club features sweeping views of the surrounding mountains, which were visible through the large windows of the ballroom in which the reception was held. With a color palette of purple, ivory and silver, their wedding was romantic and glamorous. Tables were covered in metallic silver tablecloths, and a purple and white orchids awaited family and friends at their seats. Guests enjoyed Dayna and Kelly's signature lavender cocktail as well as the gorgeous fondant wedding cake, flavored chocolate caramel and strawberry vanilla. "We wanted our guests to feel relaxed and taken care of, and most importantly, we wanted them to have fun!"
